Note: One sponsor, male or female, is sufficient; but there may be two, one of each sex. To be admitted to undertake the office of sponsor, a person must: be appointed by the candidate for baptism, or by the parents or whoever stands in their place, or failing these, by the parish priest or the minister; to be appointed the person must be suitable for this role and have the intention of fulfilling it; be not less than sixteen years of age, unless a different age has been stipulated by the diocesan Bishop, or unless the parish priest or the minister considers that there is a just reason for an exception to be made; be a catholic who has been confirmed and has received the blessed Eucharist, and who lives a life of faith which befits the role to be undertaken; not labor under a canonical penalty, whether imposed or declared; not be either the father or the mother of the person to be baptized. A baptized person who belongs to a non-Catholic ecclesial community may be admitted only in company with a catholic sponsor, and then simply as a witness to the baptism. (Code of Canon Law #872-874) A Catholic in good standing not a parishioner at St. Patrick's Church must provide a letter of suitability from the pastor of their home parish in order to serve as a sponsor for baptism.*
