ST. PATRICK'S / ANNE'S / SACRED HEART NEWS & NOTES

APRIL 3, 2020

Dear Friends of the Mailing List:

An overload of information this week! Let's start at the parish level, let's move to the diocesan level and then we will focus on the Universal Church. First the parishes...

We have been sending out OneCall Now phone messages to all those with valid phone numbers in our parish database. If you have not received a phone call, perhaps you might be in need of updating your parish information, which you can do by clicking the following link, filling out all the information and sending this filled out form back to your respective parish (this form works with all parishes; please mail to your specific parish): CLICK HERE!!!

I have promised all of you that each day through Holy Thursday (including today), I will process through the property on a solo trek with the blessed sacrament (9:00 a.m. at Anne's and 10:00 a.m. at Pat's). On Good Friday, I will process on a solo outdoor Stations of the Cross pilgrimage, starting at St. Patrick's at noon and St. Anne's at 3:00 p.m. All the liturgies are now available on the parish website - I very much encourage you to be in solidarity with everyone in the local communities by praying with these online videos. Remember, just like when clergy and religious pray "The Liturgy of the Hours" each day, we often say them alone physically but spiritually we say them in communion with every voice throughout the world. NO ONE IS ALONE IN THE CATHOLIC FAITH - WE ARE ALL PART OF THE BODY OF CHRIST!

Below are the relevant liturgies celebrated in our local communities for your consideration this weekend.

Before everything went crazy, I received help from an unlikely source to help me out with singing the Passion for both Palm Sunday (Gospel of Matthew) and Good Friday (Gospel of John). Fr. Michael Magiera, FSSP from St. Joseph's in Rockdale celebrates the Mass, in Latin, in what is called "The Extraordinary Form" (the manner in which Mass normally was celebrated prior to Vatican II). He and I both minister at the Annunciation Monastery for the Poor Clares and when I asked him for help to do something really spiritual for the communities I serve, he and his director of music were most kind to help me. As a preview of the Palm Sunday Mass, below is the chant for the Passion of the Lord according to the Gospel of Matthew...

All Holy Week services have been posted on the Parish websites. You can access all the services by clicking on the parish website links. Later on this week, I will post the Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday services (as well as the Easter Basket blessing)...!!!

On a side note, the bishop has asked all the priests of the diocese to take a 33% pay cut during our present struggles. This is fine - I have donated from savings and such about $20,000 this year for the benefit of this community. As I have stated on numerous times, I am trying to do my part to help you out, retirement be darned - I'm more concerned about my afterlife than retirement life (the way I'm going, good luck on me getting to retirement, anyway!). All we ask you to do is your part in this cause. We already have a link set up so that you can help support the Sacred Heart Mission, which is the poorest community in the diocese. Here is the link for the Online Giving Link for all three of the parishes I serve (this gives you the ability to donate directly from your bank account to the parish's)...

Concerning the Universal Church...

Please note that in light of confessions not being heard during scheduled hours, Mother Church reminds us that if a person truly is sorry for their sins (mortal or venial), if they make a "perfect contrition," promise not to sin again (and here is the important part) GO TO INDIVIDUAL CONFESSION AT THE NEXT AVAILABLE OPPORTUNITY, then their sins are forgiven.

Here is a slew of online information given to us to pass on to you (you can find this on the website as well)...

Between this and my three university classes, I really feel like I have nothing better to do! You all are doing fine – remember that staying at home is a great opportunity to spend time with God, preparing ourselves for the everlasting life that is on the other side of our life on earth! What a deal!!!

God Bless,

Rev. Peter G. Jankowski
